SECTION TWO - ABOUT THE AMAA

In the past quarter century, the organization has grown to include all forms of martial arts and nurtures competitions across the southeast. It has helped to universalize martial arts in the south by offering standards for rank promotion and testing procedures as well as instructor certification services ensuring the highest quality of teachers.

The AMAA offers consultation services to help instructors with the business of running a dojo and hosting successful tournaments. It also supports the formation of a successful curriculum of any form of martial arts study. The American Martial Arts Alliance, LLC Sport Karate League sanctions many tournaments each year and maintains statistics of its member's tournament performances. At its annual tournament the AMAA Nationals and AMAA Hall of Fame awards banquet each year, the AMAA honors great competitors, students, and instructors by inducting them into the AMAA Hall of Fame.

The AMAA Sport Karate League is not affiliated in any way with the promoter or the event, the rules of the event, or any decisions made by the promoter. We offer our services to maintain statistics of its member's tournament performances. The AMAA is a point gathering service only! Points are recorded based on the information provided by the promoter.

With its mission to spread the ethics and integrity of the martial arts throughout the world of sport karate, the AMAA has succeeded in creating a tournament atmosphere that enables members to learn, compete, and have fun while developing themselves into better martial artists.

SECTION THREE - MISSION STATEMENT

The primary focus of the American Martial Arts Alliance, LLC is to develop discipline, respect, honor, accountability, and leadership through the philosophy of martial arts and to provide services and guidance to foster technical excellence and maintain the highest standards in the martial arts community.

Students are encouraged to participate and compete whenever possible to interact and exchange skills with other martial artists. The American Martial Arts Alliance, LLC will uphold the integrity, ethics, and spirit of fairness within sport karate, honor and support the unsung heroes of martial arts, and pave the way for future champions.
